

MICHIGAN MEDICINE
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Transition Planning

Do you know... young people with developmental or other disabilities should have a Transition Plan? The purpose of a transition plan is to help young people to become independent as they age.

Transition planning includes the following 5 areas:

Adult Living

Education

Community Participation

Employment

Health Care

For resources and to learn more about Transition Planning, visit:

cthi.medicine.umich.edu/resources

University of Michigan
Rehabilitation Engineering Research Center
Technology Increasing Knowledge: Technology Optimizing Choice